AAP govt mus on air polluti

New Delhi

Union environment minister Prakash Javadekar on Monday lashed out at the AAP government asking whether it was following the Central Pollution Control Board's (CPCB) directives aimed at combating the severe air pollution in the national capital.

Responding to questions over rising air pollution in the Delhi-NCR region, Javadekar said his ministry has already held several stubble burning, Tomar said, "I don't agree with what Captain Amrinder (Singh) says. The whole world knows what happens if subsidy is given unless there is no solution for stubble clearance."

The central government is giving subsidy to buy farm machinery under a scheme. If the Punjab governments thinks subsidy will help in reducing stubble burning, let the state
