A delegation of the Delhi Bharatiya Janata Party Pradesh met the Chief Election Commissioner on Thursday and complained against the paid news in all major newspapers by Aam Aadmi Party candidate Arvind Kejriwal from New Delhi and demanded that this expenditure be added to his election expenses and demanded action on them.

The delegation included MP Meenakshi Lekhi, National Secretary and Convenor of Delhi Assembly Election Management Committee Tarun Chugh, National Media Co-head Sanjay Mayukh, Pradesh Media Head Ashok Goel Devraha. Taking cognizance of the complaint, Chief Election Commissioner Sunil Arora has assured of appropriate action.

BJP MP Meenakshi Lekhi said that apprehensive of his possible defeat, Kejriwal has crossed all the limits of petty politics. After pretending to work for six months before the election, when the people of Delhi rejected Kejriwal, he is promoting himself in big newspapers by giving paid news.

"For five years, Kejriwal spent crores of advertisements instead of working and when the support of the people of Delhi is showing trend towards BJP, he started campaigning through paid news," Lekhi said.

Adding that she said, "After the failure of the tricks, Kejriwal took the path of paid news but the people of Delhi are sensible, they are familiar with such tactics of Kejriwal."

Kejriwal 'exposed', BJP to win more than 45 seats in Delhi: Nadda

New Delhi

As the campaign for the Delhi assembly polls ended on Thursday, BJP president J P Nadda said Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal has been "exposed" for his "false" promises and expressed confidence that the saffron party will win over 45 seats in the 70-member legislature.

He also accused Kejriwal and the Congress of misleading Muslims, and fuelling violence under the garb of the anti-Citizenship (Amendment) Act protests.

"Be it his false promises or advertisements about hollow development; be it standing with anti-nationals or his conspiracy to stoke violence; Kejriwal has been exposed. Delhi is with the BJP and Prime Minister Narendra Modi who has enhanced the country's prestige," Nadda said in a statement.

Referring to Shaheen Bagh protests, he alleged that remarks against India's integrity are made there but the AAP government says that it is with these protesters.

He said the BJP has vowed to build two-room houses for people living in 'jhuggis' (slum) and will roll out Modi government's development schemes in the national capital if it comes to power.

"People have decided to bring the BJP to power in Delhi. The BJP is going to come to power with a full majority. More than 45 for the BJP in Delhi this time," he said.

The BJP has been out of power in the city for more than two decades, and had only managed three seats as against AAP's 67 in last assembly elections. Later, BJP got one more seat in Rajouri Garden by-election in 2017.

In last round, top guns of BJP threw efforts by road shows; Nukkad Sabha in Delhi constituencies

New Delhi

In the last round of Delhi assembly election campaign, top leaders of BJP threw all efforts on streets by doing road shows, nukkad sabaha and door to door campaign to seek votes from Delhiites in favour of BJP candidates.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah, along with State President Manoj Tiwari, campaigned by holding a road show in Seemapuri, Harinagar and Madi Pur constituencies of Delhi.

Addressed to the public Mr Shah said that Shaheen Bagh is the joint venture of Aam Aadmi Party and Congress. He said, "Kejriwal and Rahul Gandhi are worried that Shaheen Bagh should not be discussed. I want to ask that tell why the security of the country should not be an electoral issue? Why are the people sitting in Shaheen Bagh demanding Jinnah Wali Azadi and why the Tukde-Tukde gang is supporting them? Shame on these people."

Shah said, "I want to tell all of you that Tukde-Tukde gang is going to get a shock, because you are going to press the on the lotus symbol at the booth with your whole family on February 8, for the development of Delhi and the country and is going to ensure safety."

National President Jagat Prakash Nadda also adressed a public meeting at Adarsh Nagar and Tri Nagar in Jangpura. Addressing to people, Nadda said "The huge public gathering in support of BJP makes it clear that the people of Delhi have faith in development and are giving victory to the BJP on February 8 with a strong

Several first time candidates in fray for Delhi polls

New Delhi

The fate of several first-time candidates from various political parties in the national capital will be decided on February 8 when voters in Delhi are set to exercise their franchise in the state assembly polls. The high-voltage poll campaign that ended on Thursday was marked by an aggressive blitzkrieg between Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) and Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), while Congress too left no stone unturned to make the contest triangular.

Twenty-nine-year-old Shubham Sharma, who is contesting on a Congress ticket from Tughlakabad constituency, said "As a first-timer, it means a lot to me to contest from Indian National Congress. In our constituency, there is nothing for the youth, not even a sports complex. None of the governments (Centre and State) have fulfilled any of their promises."

"None of the leaders has utilised Okhla industrial area adequately. The sad part is no one has even tried to utilise it. I will take up this issue seriously," he said.

Sharma is contesting against AAP's Sahi Ram Pehlwan and BJP's Vikram Bidhuri.

BJP too has fielded some new candidates to oust the ruling AAP from Delhi. BJP's candidate from Delhi Cantt, Manish Singh has promised to bring in drastic changes in his constituency if elected to office.

"There are four major issues in our area which need to be resolved immediately. The first that tops the list is clean drinking water which the AAP government has deprived people. Further, there are problems of lease and mutation which need special attention," he said.

"People living in servant quarters are facing real adversities in daily life. Electricity is also a major concern here which I promise to resolve after being elected by the people," Singh added.

He will face Virender Singh Kadian from AAP and Congress' Sandeep Tanwar.

Out of over 1.47 crore voters in the national capital, there are 2,32,815 voters between the age group of 18-19 years.

Another candidate Vinay Kumar Mishra, who had contested 2013 polls on Congress ticket, is fighting this election on the AAP ticket for the first time.

"There are only pros this time. I did not see any anti-incumbency against AAP. We are getting a positive response and people are happy with us," he said.

When asked about his vision for the constituency, he said: "There are unauthorised colonies, some major problems in sewage lines which I want to resolve. Also, there is a 27-acre park, which has been at the centre of various sports activities and programs/events."

"However, it is closed now and my priority is to open it for the people of my constituency. Here the people are not rich and cannot go to farmhouses to conduct weddings and other functions and they solely depend on this park," he added.

Mishra has been fielded against Congress' Adarsh Shastri and BJP's Pradyumna Rajput. Shastri who won on the AAP ticket in 2015 Assembly polls had joined the Congress last month.

Ahead of Delhi polls, anti-CAA protesters demand more security at protest sites

New Delhi

Anti-CAA protesters here on Thursday sought heightened security at Jamia Millia Islamia and Shaheen Bagh, following the recent firing incidents at these sites.

The protesters alleged that more such incidents might happen on the February 8 Delhi Assembly elections.

Three firing incidents have taken place in Jamia Nagar area in a week.

On January 30, a minor fired at anti-CAA protesters preparing to march from Jamia towards the Rajghat, injuring a student. Two days later, a 25-year-old fired two rounds in air at Shaheen Bagh, where a protest against the new citizenship law has been going on. No one was hurt in the incident.

Thousands of people, including women and children, have been protesting since December 15 at Shaheen Bagh and nearby Jamia Millia Islamia against the Citizenship (Amendment) Act and the National Register of Citizens.

Jamia student Mohd Hafeez Azmi said, "The students at Jamia Millia and women at Shaheen Bagh have sought tight security with armed policemen at Jamia University and Shaheen Bagh. Till now, the disturbing forces were sending men with pistols to shoot and instigate us and disturb protests but on the day of polling they might trigger a bigger attack."

The Jamia students stated that since the protest at Shaheen Bagh has been an all-women one, the security at the spot is essential.

Areefa Ahmed, a Shaheen Bagh protester, said, "The pro-CAA citizens have already maligned us, accused us and even abused us for carrying out these protests. Neither that deterred our spirits nor did firing. However, we don't want a miscreant to get inside and create chaos leading to a blame-game later where protesters are accused of disturbing law and order."

Delhi Police officials said they have categorised 3,141 'critical booths' and 144 'vulnerable booths' out of the total 13,750 polling booths. Two-hundred polling booths have been categorised as 'critical' and 90 as 'vulnerable' in North Delhi's Okhla (including Jamia Nagar and Seelampur).

The officials said 60,000 security personnel, including 38,400 police personnel, 19,000 home guards and the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPF). In addition to that, the police will use drones and social media monitoring for the polling day vigil.

Police have already started motorcycle and foot patrolling in sensitive areas, whereas paramilitary forces have been deployed in sensitive booths across the city.

No requests for setting up temporary jail in Kanjhawala: Delhi Police

New Delhi:

The Delhi Police on Thursday refuted reports that it has requested the state government to convert a stadium in Kanjhawala into a temporary prison.

This comes amid reports in some sections of media today which claimed that such a request had been sent to the Delhi government. "Some media sections are running a story regarding a letter written by Delhi Police asking Delhi Govt to convert a stadium in Kanjhawala into a temporary prison. It is to clarify that no such letter has been written in recent times. The news is devoid of facts," a Delhi Police official said. It is to be noted that on January 29, the Police department had written a letter to the state government for permission to set up a temporary jail, keeping in mind the protests scheduled for January 30 against the amended Citizenship Act. However, no new request has been made to the state government.

Delhi: Fired employee robs ex-boss at gunpoint

New Delhi

A 30-year-old man was arrested in Central Delhi's Karol Bagh for allegedly robbing Rs 5 lakh cash from his former employer at gunpoint, police said on Thursday.

Chandan, who had a grudge against his former boss for firing him two years ago, planned the robbery along with his two friends, Ranjit (24) and Jaan Mohammad, they said.

Police have arrested Ranjit (24) but Mohammad is absconding, an official said.

On January 23 at 8:30 pm, Chandan and Ranjit robbed Sanjay Sahdev, a garment trader, outside his house.

The duo allegedly fired in the air to scare Sahdev and then robbed his bag, containing cash and other documents, before fleeing in their vehicle, said Mandeep Singh Randhawa, Additional Commissioner of Police (Central).

Police scrutinised CCTV camera footage from the crime scene and nearby area to identify the suspects, he added.

Chandan and Ranjit were nabbed from their respective houses in Azadpur and Model Town area on Wednesday, the officer said.

A scooter used in the crime, the looted money, some documents of Sahdev, and a mobile phone purchased after robbery have been recovered, he said.

During interrogation, Chandan told police that he wanted to teach Sahdev a lesson since the day he was fired. He started working at another shop in Gaffar Market and kept waiting for the right moment to rob Sahdev, the officer said.

Chandan knew that Sahdev earns good money in winters by sale of jackets and takes the cash home at night, he said. After the incident, Chandan deposited Rs 40,000 in his bank account, while Ranjit purchased an expensive mobile phone, the police said.
